

Bland County Solid Waste Collection Notice

The County would like to ask our residents to refrain from placing any Trash out the day before or several days before collection unless it is placed in an animal proof container. Placing it out early without being contained allows animals to tear it up and scatter it throughout the community, state right-of-way and your adjoining neighbor's property.

Please be considerate of your neighbors and our community in trying to help keep it clean!